

Directions to SuperC

The workshop will take place at the SuperC building at RWTH University. The building is located right in the center of the city. It is in walking distance from the main station and is otherwise well connected by public transport.

Public transportation:

From the main station you can take the bus 13A with direction to Eurogress-Ponttor or you can take the bus 13B with direction to Schanz-Ponttor. Both bus lines will bring you to the bus station „TechnischeHochschule“ where the SuperC building is located.

If you do not want to take the bus you can explore Aachen by foot. From the main station, you should first head west on Lagerhausstraße towards Wallstraße. Turn right onto Wallstraße. After 50 m turn left to stay on Wallstraße and then turn right onto Franzstraße. Continue onto Kleinmarschierstraße and turn left onto Schmiedstraße. Continue onto Kloostergasse and walk straight onto Kockerellstraße. Turn left onto Augustinerbach and right after that turn right onto Eilfschornsteinstraße. After 200 m turn left onto Templergraben. You reach the SuperC building after 50 m.

Transportation by car:

Address for navigation: Templergraben 57, 52062 Aachen

From Cologne (Köln) (A4), Düsseldorf (A44), Belgium (A44) go to the motorway junction Autobahnkreuz Aachen. Continue your travel on the A4 towards Heerlen/Antwerpen. Turn off at the exit Aachen/Laurensberg. At the end of the exit drive to the right hand side in the direction of Aachen/RWTH. Follow the signposts for RWTH/Westbahnhof and RWTH-Zentrum/Westbahnhof passing the Ford Research Centre and the Lindt building. After passing the Lindt building head southeast on Süsterfeldstraße toward Kühlwetterstraße. Continue straight onto Claßenstraße and turn left onto Turmstraße. After driving 250 m turn right onto Malteserstraße. After 400 m turn left onto Templergraben. You reach SuperC building after 50 m.
